SAFEGUARDING

While FIRST UK is committed to ensuring that all Participants have a positive and safe experience on the programme in line with its own Safeguarding Policy. The ultimate responsibility for safeguarding lies with the Participating Establishment. The Participating Establishment should appoint a designated (and a deputy) employee to act as Safeguarding Lead. These representatives must remain on site and ensure Participants are supervised at all times by the relevant teaching staff including when a mentor, FIRST UK staff, or other adult is present. All Participants should adhere to Keeping Children Safe in Education 2018 and any additional applicable guidance and legislation. It is the Participating Establishment's responsibility to undertake necessary risk assessments and take into consideration any additional requirements of Participants or attendees of the programme.

PRIVACY AND CONSENT

As part of the programme, FIRST UK encourages Participants to document and share their experiences (in the form of film, audio and via photography) and FIRST UK will be taking photos and images during events. These images may be shared by the Participant or Participating Establishment online via social media and/or with/by FIRST UK. Where such sharing occurs, implicit consent is deemed provided for FIRST UK to use imagery, film and content for the purposes of publicity and promotion. Where FIRST UK itself captures images or video of Participants at events or other contexts prior consent will be obtained via an opt-out process in line with our Consent Policy. Imagery and film stored by FIRST UK will be retained in perpetuity. No names of young people will be used or attributed without explicit prior written consent. It is the Participating Establishment responsibility to ensure that the Participants' parents or carers complete a Consent Form for the programme. If you require any information on how FIRST UK may process data, please refer to our Privacy Policy.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

All copyright, trademarks, design rights, and other intellectual property rights (registered and unregistered) in and on the website and all content provided by FIRST UK shall remain vested in or its licensors. The Participating Establishment will be granted access to all relevant materials required for the programme, these materials should be used for participation in the programme only. If the Participating Establishment would like to use any materials for any other use, consent should be sought in advance. The materials are not permitted to be used for any other purpose, and commercial use is prohibited.

COMPLAINTS

Any complaints should be raised in accordance with FIRST UK Complaints Policy. In the event of a dispute, the parties shall attempt to resolve the matter in good faith and escalate internally, where appropriate. These terms shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of England and Wales which shall have exclusive jurisdiction over any disputes
